Wrestling with Angels

Recently, in October of 2015, she gave the DeBose Lectures Rowan Williams is slated for 2016! In this book of essays, one can expect challenging, meaty fare written in a gentle, thoughtful, affirming style.

Rowan Williams

Equally, few Girardians follow Girard on every point.

An Odd Work of Grace: Quotes on the Trinity

This reviewer found the book highly intellectual and challenging to read and understand. Toward that end, it unfolds Girard's arguments against other apocalyptic contenders, including Hegel and Heidegger; it opens up a space of conversation with other forms of apocalyptic thought ; and in and through Girard's affirmation of Benedict XVI, raises. Culture is stabilized by the scapegoat mechanism.

Mike Higton: Publications

Rather than look for some more direct parallel to the relations of Father, Son, and Spirit, this just is the shape the trinity takes on the human level.

Sarah Coakley on Girard

For twenty years they have been meeting once a year to talk about their work, their lives, and their thinking about the Christian faith. I should be interested to learn to what extent M-Adam's universalism informs her theodicy. Although the writing largely revolves around the nuclear threat of the then Cold War, the arguments are relevant in today's scenarios where war continues to feature on most countries agendas, whether as participant, instigator, defendant or wary observer.
