As the only officially recognised flag to be flown from Governmental buildings within the country, it is without doubt the most widely seen flag representing the people of Wales. These animals are armed with long, straight, spiral horns set close together, so that at a side view they appeared to be but a single horn.

The Legendary Welsh Dragon that Expelled the Saxons

Additionally, this symbol is also used by various institutions in the country, both public and private.

Welsh heraldry

Francis who settled in St. In continental Europe, multiple helmets were usually turned inward, with the centre helm if an odd number turned affronté, while in Scandinavian heraldry the helmets were usually turned outward.

Caernarfonshire (Wales)

The three stripes in the second quarter look odd, as does the Celtic cross in the third, and there is a letter in the fourth quarter.
