The Parent Handbook is from Amber Reed and I'm really excited to use it this year! As it turns out, the Yellowfin wasn't the hallucination of some drunken cowboy, but an actual trout subspecies described by a pair of academics in the 1891 Bulletin of the United States Fish Commission. It has been shown by Fisher and Austin that the radiation resistance of an antenna decreases rapidly with increasing wave-length to a minimum and then rises again in a linear manner with further increase in wave-length. Based on length-at-age of some specimens, it was thought that this sample might be contaminated with Arctic cod.
