Art, Science, and a Balanced Life essays

The real art of living lies in looking at the brighter side of things.

Importance of Art in Our Life

Art is the spontaneous documentation of emotions based on one's own perception of life. Life has various aims for various people; to some it is just an empty dream; to others it is zeal and pleasure. Samuel Butler was a man of such unusual versatility, and his interests were so many and so various that his literary remains were bound to cover a wide field.
