The flowers you purchase from us will last for an entire year or even longer.

The Flower Arranger Magazine

Almost at the end of summer, this was an ode to my most beloved season, Autumn. It is the work of a passionate team of articulate artists led by grower and visionary Erin Benzakein, who has been an important proponent of small farms with big ideas. Treasures that make your home fresh, beautiful, inspirational and above all uniquely yours.

The Flower Arranger Magazine

In your January 20, 2020 blog you show your newly refurbished master bedroom with an antique French mantel set between two bookcases.

A very good dilemma to have, non? I hope to see you each time Mary, Pam, Shirley and I gather on the first and third Monday of the month to share our floral therapy. Floral design was compact and asymmetrical and stacked tightly with many different flowers and colors for a unplanned look. Floret is such a magical and breathtaking place.

The Year in Flowers

Keep an eye out for driftwood and shells if you do and check out our fabulous beachcomber designs from New Zealand on page 32. Thank you so much for your visits, they are so cherished by me.

The Year in Flowers

Are large furniture pieces moved for photographic purposes? Signed copies of the book are available for via the Floret Shop and can be shipped internationally. I was super excited to show you what you can do to create a beautiful fall centerpiece using what you have! Stephens Davis

Library, working together with the Davis Senior Center to provide May baskets to shut-in seniors, and providing bouquets for the regional garden club luncheon.
