Moirra in The Handmaid's Tale

Gilead, at least on a global scale, is a regime that has an end, that has escape.

Moirra in The Handmaid's Tale

When she told him she was going to leave to marry Roland, he attacked Isabelle, and died from septicaemia because he wound a piece of her hair around his finger. I've tried reading this book so many times but honestly, I made it till 43% and then I gave up. She explained to Raj the difficulties her father had in borrowing the money and clearing the debt.

J.P. Morgan

She never sees her husband, daughter, or mother again. Venezuela by Nora Matilde Mendez de Mora I have observed the following cultural impediments to mutuality in men and women in ministry in my country of Venezuela.

The Beautiful Lady: Our Lady of Guadalupe

Our galaxy, Milky Way, is sketched diagrammatically in a composition like an Agnes Martin painting. From that, they were able to become the people they were- detached from everyone but each other.

Future State: Justice League #1

May the cook fall asleep, and may all the viands be burnt! Jane Eyre Jane Eyre is frequently mentioned in the novel. The heartfelt pain of losing not just a sibling, but a twin, the one who shared a bond deeper than any other.

The Beautiful Lady: Our Lady of Guadalupe

Yes, gender bending, I got that and I was fine with it as something new or different or both but that Shakespeare play isn't a favorite of mine anyway. On he wandered again till he was nearly home, when one day he noticed a handsome fountain standing by the road, and over against it a fine palace.

SurLaLune

Almost like lines of black text on a page. Emmeline died near the end at an old age, and Vida Winter let the 'wolf' inside of her win when she finished telling her story.

Mora Carmody, or, Woman's influence [microform] : a tale. : [One line from Shakespeare]

Generally presumed by most to be mentally retarded. I really liked what I read from the 3 main characters, they are strong and fearless women and I liked them a lot. If you're looking to create an interesting story with relatable morals, take a look at these.
