Jeffrey Charles, Instructor, California State University, San Marcos. Stanley Chodorow, Accreditation Liaison Officer, April 1986. Unfortunately for the general reader interested in San Diego, however, Anderson does not avoid all the pitfalls of an official institutional history.

Geisel Library

Established shortly after the university was created in the 1960s, the UC San Diego Archives includes materials as diverse as records of the chancellors, student newspapers, campus financial reports, campus master plans, course catalogs, yearbooks, commencement programs, and memorabilia. The Mathematics Department's first year was largely devoted to the recruitment of faculty and preparation of graduate and undergraduate curricula, but some graduate instruction was offered.

Special Collections & Archives

Eminent faculty whose papers are a part of the collections include Martin Kamen, Hans Suess, Michael Shinkin, Russell Dolittle, William Thompson, and Nobelists Hannes Alfvén, Harold Clayton Urey, and Maria Goeppert Mayer. HFS clients enjoy state-of-the-art warehousing, real-time access to critical business data, accounts receivable management and collection, and unparalleled customer service.

Special Collections & Archives

In 2015, university officials announced that Geisel Library would begin to undergo its second renovation. The Mathematics Department began the year 1965-66 with a considerably expanded staff of 12 regular and five visiting or acting members of all professorial ranks.

An Improbable Venture

Snake Path as seen from Geisel The east side of the Geisel forum is literally and symbolically connected to Warren Mall by the work Snake Path, 's 560-foot-long slate tile path that winds towards the library. San Diego: Tofua Press, 1978. Its route passes a giant granite and a small garden of fruit trees.

This tower was to be situated atop a main level containing the staff and public areas of the library. That has given rise to several fanciful explanations for why the third floor is apparently sealed off and not accessible from elevators or steps. Stewart, John, oral history conducted by Kathryn Ringrose.
