The Telephone Booth Indian by A.J. Liebling

This is today a sign of a modern approach to business. Liebling's bias shows but this is worth the read in being a time capsule to a bygone age.

By the way, there was no building called Jollity in NYC; it is either a composite of several buildings on Broadway, or primarily the Brill Building. Hush pods are mobile and modular — they can be easily expanded, adapting to team, client, or project needs in real-time. Newer phones allow users to use calling cards and credit cards.
