Sir Willoughby had hitherto treated her as a dear insignificaDt friend, to whom it was unneces- sary that he should mention the object of his rides to Upton Park. I went so far as to fancy I had some claim to make young Crossjay something different. The man, I may almost say, is my pensioner.

The egoist; a comedy in narrative : Meredith, George, 1828

The gift of humourous fancy is in women fenced round with forbidding placards; they have to choke it ; if they perceive a piece of humour, for instance, the young Willoughby grasped by his master, and his horrified relatives rigid at the sight of prep- arations for the deed of sacrilege, they have to blindfold the mind's eye.
