But by the late 70s generalists were becoming scarce, and some Field administrators took an increasingly dim view of his extensive contact with the amateurs. This suggests that, despite a temporal decoupling of the terrestrial and marine biotic collapses, Siberian Traps magmatism was the likely trigger in both realms.

Fossil flora of the lower coal measures of Missouri : White, David, 1862

He has big cockroaches, tiny sharks, fish, amphibians, leeches, chitons, sea scorpions, a huge horseshoe crab, and an entire case of plant fossils. The future tricounty area was on one of these deltas. A palynological zonation of the Australian Mesozoic.
