Forget Provence: why Languedoc is the real South of France

Another bonus is the flexibility it provides, not only can you have breakfast at whatever time you choose, but also wherever; on the terrace, near the beach or next to your private swimming pool.

Châteaux & Castle Rental in the South of France

The Greeks and Phoenicians colonised the seaside town of Agde, using it as one of their major trading ports. All are busy with low-cost flights that bring in visitors from all over Europe.

Not to forget its delicious gastronomy and wine. There are plenty of sandy beaches in the Languedoc, but the resorts around them are more modern and the coastal plain is very flat, so the scenery isn't as interesting on the coast. Company founder Dan Brewer is an experienced property consultant and Director of Healey Fox.

From Marseillan-Plage, we traced the western edge of the oyster-filled Etang de Thau saltwater lagoon, past pools of wild flamingos and over the final throes of the Canal du Midi, to Marseillan proper. In addition, regions have considerable discretionary power over infrastructural spending, e. With our villas, you can ensure the whole group will enjoy the property as we have done the leg work and visited and checked each room! Another favourite is a weekend trip to Les Halles covered market: a great little buzzy spot where Setois meet on a Sunday to drink coffee and share and enjoy seasonal produce bought at the market.

Regions of France

We also have a selection of luxury villas in Corsica and Morocco.
