The blessedness of the death of these that die in the Lord, and more especially in an evil time : excellently discoursed in seven very searching, but very sweet sermons on Revel. 14. v. 13 ... (Microform, 1682) [tech.radiozamaneh.com]

A promise Peter and the early Christians looked forward to - cf. Religion guards this point, and confines the declaration to those who furnish evidence that they are prepared for heaven. The Danish people are the tribe of Dan.

Revelation 14:13 And I heard a voice from heaven telling me to write, are the dead

Here is no mention of the resurrection, which must go before the last judgment. On the head of Him sitting on the cloud is a golden crown.

Prayers for Death and Dying

This passage may be referred to as a proof that he wrote this book while in Patmos, or as the heavenly disclosures were made to him, and not afterward from memory.

Revelation 14:13 Commentaries: And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow with

They actually and conscientiously enjoy happiness in a state of blessedness.

The gospel is the great means whereby men are brought to fear God, and to give glory to him. Angels have announced judgment, and more angels now carry out that judgment. It will be recalled that Lazarus entered not into any conversation and that he appeared totally inactive throughout the narrative.

The blessedness of the death of those that die in the Lord (1756 edition)

. Evil is going to triumph over good.
