Before 1903 the Manor was approached via curving drives across the park from lodges at the west end of the village and on the road from Burton to Puddington. It was taken over in the 1950s by the Mid-Cheshire Car Club. The outside space would be brilliant in better weather, even so, we managed a walk around the lake.

He also built more terracing and a wall. The grounds were laid out by Eames and Webb as his pupil. It had generous endowments of lands, saltworks and local churches, although there were problems with the constant flooding of riverside properties, and in 1391 the house was sufficiently influential to be raised in status from priory to abbey.
