Marvel Studios' Loki

Just click to copy and paste on Twitter, Facebook, Snapchat, Instagram, and other social media sites. I think the fact that we see Kang statue instead of 3 timekeeper statues is evidence that a different variant is in the driver seat. That actually doesn't make much sense.

Marvel Studios' Loki

Timeline is the course of events that happens over time, in this case, the Sacred Timeline is a predetermined set of events created by HWR. Universe is just the universe as you know it. He Who Remains, via the TVA, kept all of these realities from branching to the point where other variants of himself would exist.

Marvel Studios' Loki

It is also why Loki is sent back to a different TVA even when it exists outside of time. This is what they meant time is circular where everything past, present, future is happening at the same time all at once.

Marvel Studios' Loki

This means that he knows that things that have already occurred will occur again. Imagine telling yourself that you're keeping people safe, when you're dumping entire realities full of innocent people into a trash compactor.

Friends Japanese Emoticons ୧(ᵒᵒᵒ)୧୧(ᵒᵒᵒ)୧ ,Friends Kawaii Face & Friends Text Faces

The show has combined Immortus and He Who Remains into one character, and it seems to imply that some combined permutation of the above events may have happened previously. Ya I think it was always preordained that Loki and Sylvie reached that point.

Marvel Studios' Loki

It only took the effective shape of a loop because of how HWR clipped the branches.
