However, certain types of legislation are required, either by or by law, to be introduced into a specific chamber. If a bill is approved, it passes on to the committee stage. This report by The Canadian Press was first published June 23, 2021.

Procedural Reference Material

Accommodation in the initial accommodation centres is usually full board with no cash provided. These will only be provided to the interpreters to assist with the simultaneous interpretation of the witness's testimony. The committee reserves the right to decide which documents that it receives will be translated and distributed to its members.
