Anne, formerly a noted place of pilgrimage, visited both by Henry VII. Also on the War Memorial are the names of the 21 men who died in the Second World War, 1939-45.

St Luke, Brislington Churches in Bristol and Somerset

He did not record the exact location of his discoveries and after his death the finds from the different sites became mixed together and therefore of little use in identifying the products of any individual pottery. The view was drawn by the artist from a point on the south bank of the Avon looking west across the approximate location of the medieval chapel and showing quite clearly the cone of a pottery kiln partly hidden by trees, lying behind a complex of buildings which may be St. He died in 1671 and left all his property to his wife, Sarah, excluding two fields called the Moores which he left to his daughter, Sarah, who at that time was still a minor.
