Francis Bacon's Prose Style

Concentration is on three fundamental but ambiguous Stoic ideals: tranquillity, duty, and the wise man.

Renaissance (1500)

Latin words, far-fetched similes and remote metaphors created difficulties for the readers.

Of Truth Critical Analysis by Sir Francis Bacon along with Summary

Erasmus desired simplicity in Christianity, and rejected all elaborate theology with the view that true religion comes from the heart and not the head. In reaching this verdict, however, they overlooked the fact that a natural philosophy based on a theory of matter cannot be assessed on the grounds of a natural philosophy or science based on mechanics as the fundamental discipline.

Francis Bacon and Renaissance Prose : Brian Vickers : 9780521114967

Since he failed to secure for himself a position in the government, he considered the possibility of giving up politics and concentrating on natural philosophy. Successful operations in natural philosophy and technology help to improve the human lot in a way which makes the hardships of life after the Fall obsolete. I know this is off topic however I simply needed to ask.
