These evangelicals can lead the way to a reformation in Third World development strategy because they have for the most part avoided the errors of their oldline co-activists and have shown more sensitivity to the forceful empirical analysis of the 1980s. This should be a reminder for us that we are accountable for the suffering that we cause to others. That is, finding the power and strength in Jesus Christ to forgive and love your abuser as Christ completely heals you from the abuse that they subjected you to.
