Ecclesiastical court legal definition of Ecclesiastical court

All which is referred to the judicious Reader. The first verse sheweth, that they were men of Iudea; the 5th. Our people had not begun with REFORMATION IN SWEDEN.

William Forsyth, History of Trial by Jury

The foregoing economic changes, academic critics contend, have eroded the bar's independence, in the sense of making it harder or at least more costly for lawyers to maintain an appropriate distance from their clients. The deanery and archdeaconry of Llandaff are henceforth united. Thus the lesser is blessed of the greater.
