The Taylor Law

The chairperson shall receive an annual salary to be fixed within the amount available therefor by appropriation, in addition to an allowance for expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in the performance of his or her duties. For purposes of this subdivision an employee who is absent from work without permission, or who abstains wholly or in part from the full performance of his duties in his normal manner without permission, on the date or dates when a strike occurs, shall be presumed to have engaged in such strike on such date or dates.

Taylor Series

The Director is more likely to provide such assistance in the case of bargaining units in like school districts, BOCES and community colleges, because under the Taylor Law, those impasses cannot culminate in a legislative imposition, and hence lack a mechanism to provide finality. The employees who are designated by PERB as managerial or confidential are excluded from representation in any bargaining unit. One consequence of this was that organizational structures had to change.
