History of the Church of St. John the Baptist (1929) by Legh Tolson

The vicar still often chaired the meetings but others also took this role and in 1894 the Local Government Act made the new secular Parish Councils take over most of these duties. Happily, however, these faults do not occur in the best hymns ; and those which deface others may be eliminated without much difficulty. He was born a month before the 1861 Census, the son of George Leadbitter and his wife, Margaret.
