A new look at adolescent girls

Because of the dating situation, a girl may also feel guilt or responsibility for being in the company of the attacker and view the occurrence as normal or deserved. Many adolescent girls still believe there is an inherent conflict between feminine goals and values and competitive achievement activities.

Programs and Partnerships

The purpose of the current study is to describe hope perceptions and expectations for the future in non-U. The rural Latino females, regardless of their age category, appear to be experiencing relatively worrisome feelings of negativity toward the future. In studies from Ireland, Ghana and Brazil, girls mentioned that they in contrast to boys were expected to take care of the home and younger siblings.

Programs and Partnerships

Acculturation and violence in minority adolescents: A review of the empirical literature. Parental education and work status indirect measure of SES Gender attitudes appear to be associated with parental education level especially mothers' and parental work status. Recent research attempts focus on understanding how adolescent girls experience their sexuality to determine effective means for empowering girls to develop responsible sexual subjectivities.

Hopefulness among Non

This poem begins with mother and daughter voices speaking in unison in order to represent the themes emerging from the study described in this chapter. Tough parental control and restrictions for girls, often tied to concerns about female sexuality.
