Making North America: Human

Taken together, these studies leave no doubt that landscapes teem with social history, as groups with competing interests vie for control over the shaping and reshaping of built environment. All required textbooks are available on reserve in Helen C.

The Making Of The American Landscape PDF Book

Trapped heat rising from the earth caused enormous stress under the gigantic landmass sending earthquakes shuddering across the land. So much of the world's water was locked up in ice sheets that sea levels dropped, exposing a thousand-mile-wide expanse of land that connected Siberia to Alaska, the Bering Land Bridge.

Myth, Memory, and the Making of the American Landscape.

As a geologist, the Grand Canyon is perhaps the best place in the world. What kind of a weapon could have evened the odds? The only way in or out of here is by helicopter, but for a geologist like me, this is one of the most exciting places on the continent. At the time, San Francisco was little more than a military garrison, with a population under 1,000.
