Burnell had died before the work was finished, and most of it was finished by Yule, who, however, deeply acknowledged Burnell's contributions. Chambers 20th Century Dictionary 0. At an early period of our joint work BURNELL sent me a fragment of an essay on the words which formed our subject, intended as the basis of an introduction.

The Story of 'Hobson

Etymology: After the specialized glossary Hobson-Jobson which took its name from an eye dialect rendering by British soldiers in India of the lament يا حسن يا حسين uttered by Shia muslims crowds during the processions of their main religious event, the mourning of Muharran.

My first endeavour in preparing this work has been to make it accurate; my next to make it-even though a Glossary-interesting. At any rate, there it is; and at this period my feeling has come to be that such is the book's name, nor could it well have been anything else. Surnames too, find a mention as markers of caste and birth rank.
