A New Zionism by Gavin D'Costa

This is, however, a great error. As I have already mentioned, all these very rich discussions are intended to lead the reader to the conclusion that in view of Jewish experience and history, the appropriate interpretation of Jewish identity is a diasporic interpretation that requires Jews to integrate the identities of those other groups that they live with within a given country into their own personality-identity. Herman Adler, Chief Rabbi of Great Britain, 26 the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Shulem ben Schneersohn, 27 the Holy Gerer Rebbe, the Stas Emes, 28 and Rabbi Isaac Mayer Wise, the leader of the American Reform Movement.
