Grenville of Wotton under Barnwood, Duke of Buckingham 1822, Marquess of Buckingham 1782, Earl Temple 1749, Viscount and Baron Cobham 1718. Roll of the reign of Edward II See the seal of John Lord Lumley, who died in 1421, in Bysshe's Notes on Upton, p. This coat, except that the crosses were argent, was borne by Sir Walter de Molesworth of co.

Kingweston

This illustrious house is descended from Reginald de Courtenay, who came over to England with Henry II.

Old Worlds and New

Published: 1995 Publisher: Petmac Publications ISBN: 0715406825 This book tells the story of the most violent civil disturbance in Britain's history. After the death of his wife he retired to his estates and took little further part in public affairs, although the Carlist pretender to the Spanish throne was a regular visitor to Ashburnham. A very interesting collection shedding fresh light on the Young family.

12 Post WW2

The house was requisitioned during the Second World War as a searchlight headquarters.
