South Africa

Top 10 Africa bestsellers 1 Mugabe: Power and Plunder in Zimbabwe by Martin Meredith Public Affairs, £11. Empirically, the research mainly focuses on two national contexts: Britain and Sweden. Broadly backed by a diverse array of student groups and many notable faculty members the Committee Against Investment in South Africa held numerous teach-ins and demonstrations through the year focused on the trustees ties to the corporations doing business with South Africa.

All Western nations were unhappy with the call for sanctions and as a result boycotted the committee. See his bibliography: He co-authored World debt figures 2015 with Pierre Gottiniaux, Daniel Munevar and Antonio Sanabria 2015 ; and with Damien Millet , Monthly Review Books, New York, 2010.

Disinvestment from South Africa

The World Bank Group and the IMF as part of the pandemic response, many of which African countries are looking to implement as they plan for the medium and long-term impacts of the crisis. On the one hand we are now focused on pursuing reparations against those commercial, financial and multilateral institutions that did business with apartheid South Africa. On 1 March 1986, the protest ended when negotiations with administrators led to an agreement that the trustees would re-evaluate their decision, a mandatory teach-in would be held, and amnesty would be granted to anyone involved in the demonstration.
