These are now displayed in the Cadet Company Office here at Davies Street. Brown dust jacket over red cloth. Paul IIRC ICI Darwen made the Perspex canopies for the Spitfire in WW2 - was your Gran at the works then? One question though, and you'll most likely think I'm a nuff nuff and completely technologically dyslexic under the heading 'The Regiment in the War' it talks about the raising of the Battalions, well, in relation to the 16th it says see page 50 - I can't find page 50!! The 21st Service Battalion Yeoman Rifles landed in France as part of the in the in May 1916 for service on the Western Front but moved to Italy in November 1917 before returning to France in March 1918.
