Freedom of information

When you have completed the form you must submit it directly to the that has the documents. This may assist the agency to consider whether it can informally release the document or information to you without the need for a formal request.

FOIA.gov

The information someone can get under the Act should not be affected by who they are. If the information you require is not readily available, you must make your request in writing to the FOI Unit of the body and your application should refer to the Freedom of Information Act 2014.

Make a freedom of information request

Many of these documents are available on FDA's Internet site. Freedom of information requests We have processes in place to provide you with your personal information without the need for a Freedom of Information request, where this is appropriate to do so. However, members of the public often wrongly think it is the Freedom of Information Act that gives them the right to their personal information, so you may need to clarify things when responding to such a request.

Freedom of Information

Information Commissioner review You can ask the Australian Information Commissioner to review our original decision or our decision on internal review within 60 days of the date of decision or 30 days after you are notified if you are an affected third party. The Act covers any recorded information that is held by a public authority in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, and by UK-wide public authorities based in Scotland. If your request is not clear enough, the agency will contact you and take reasonable steps to help you clarify which documents you want to access.
