African Americans

This committee, realizing the power of advertising in America has perfected an idea whereby advertisements sponsoring democracy can be run in newspapers, on car cards and on outdoor advertising signs, sponsored by merchants, civic or fraternal groups or even individuals. The Association was also represented at the state conference of magistrates held in Albany in December and as a result of discussion at that conference the Prison Association called an important conference, mentioned on page 13, which met on December 22, 1911, and adopted far reaching resolutions regarding the development of correctional work in this state.
