Thomas West, 3rd Baron De La Warr 1577—1618 , was appointed the first Lord Governor of the Virginia Company of London in 1609 and, a year later, Captain-General of Virginia for life. In just over a decade he created about 2,100 artworks, including around 860 oil paintings, most of which date from the last two years of his life. Alizon accused Chattox of murdering four men by witchcraft, and of killing her father, John Device, who had died in 1601.

The Morgan family, the report notes, owned shares in the Royal African Company, the mercantile company set up by City of London merchants in 1660, to trade along the west coast of Africa, led by James, Duke of York, the brother of Charles II. They also note the fact he opposed the independence of India.
