20 Question of Policy Speech Topics For a Persuasive Speech ~ Best Public Speaking

Gentlemen will recollect, when tithe commutation for Ireland was passed, that there was a certain concession made to the landowners of Ireland, to induce them to acquiesce in the proposition of Parliament. Provide additional statistics, examples, and other support material. Only this: to add another buttress in the shape of another bribe.

Public Policy Essays

They have a perfect right to say to Parliament through their representatives, 'We will discontinue the State Church in Ireland, and we will create no other State Churches. And what can be more monstrous than for Gentlemen to come here from Ireland--and there may be some from England--and tell us we are bringing about a revolution, that we are committing an enormous oppression, that we are hazarding the loyalty of the people of the North of Ireland, when, after all, the most and worst which any of us proposes to do is that the Church population of Ireland will be left at least as well off as any of the various populations of the Empire I have just described? This country might have been a garden, every dwelling might have been of marble, and every person who treads its soil might have been sufficiently educated.

Do they take advantage of consumers? The noble Lord the Member for Haddingtonshire, who comes up from Scotland brimfull of enthusiasm for impossible projects, proposed to put in words which had been rejected from the preamble of the Mutiny Bill relating to the preservation of the balance of power. This, at any rate, I am satisfied, would be not only an entirely bloodless revolution, but a revolution full of blessing to the Irish people.
