57 Louis Kahn

His emergent ideas about space, light, and structure would help shape his first major commission, an extension to the Yale University Art Gallery. Letter to the Friends of the Academy Library, December 1980; reprinted in Friends of the Academy Library, Collected Letters. Nevertheless, it quickly became a mecca for architects, who came to study its austere and imposing duct towers; the abstract, rhythmic interplay of its glass, brick, and concrete facade; and the elegant articulation of its served and servant spaces.

100 Louis Kahn ideas

The facade is brick and glass, designed to evoke different responses with the changing light of day. Image source: When it became clear in the 1950s that the library had outgrown its existing building, the school initially hired an architect who proposed a traditional design for the new building.

Louis Kahn composition

Architect Louis Kahn discovered late in life how to transform the ruins of ancient Rome into modern buildings. Letter to the Friends of the Academy Library, June 30, 1994; reprinted in Friends of the Academy Library, Collected Letters. ¿Se puede hacer una elección en plena libertad si no se basa en un orden? An inspiring teacher, Cret instilled in his students a reverence for the form-giving potential of Beaux-Arts principles and the harmonious power of proportion.
