Young Man with a Horn (1950)

Kirk Douglas plays the Beiderbecke character, here named Rick Martin. Chandler insists that Rick play the music exactly as written, but after he is finished for the night, Rick plays the jazz he loves at a small club. It may also be the closest you'll come to time travel.

Russell Martin, Bix Beiderbecke, and Dorothy Baker all do that as well. But here they are on the Warner Bros lot, now rechristened Kirk Douglas and Lauren Bacall respectively, he dubbed by the great Harry James on trumpet, and she playing a daring for its day society closet lesbian. Rick feels guilty about neglecting their friendship but takes his frustrations out on Art, this man who has done so much for him.

Mention Rick Martin and you thought of his horn in Morrison's records.
