Main article: Sugar originated from India by taking sugarcane plant through some chemical and mechanical processes.

From the 1800s to Present Day: The History of Food Photography

Scotch whisky 1 tbs honey Good pinch of mixed spice 1 tsp salted butter A few rasps of freshly ground nutmeg Place everything in a small saucepan except the nutmeg and heat gently whisking with a small whisk to get a good froth. Farmer invented the ginger ale salad that congeals canned fruit in gelatin and soda.

Why The History Of Our Food Is Still Important Today

On special occasions the rich had huge feasts.

A short history of American food (whatever that is)

This one ranks up there as one of my top 3 favorites.

Who Invented Pizza?

This revolutionary technology was the tin can, which combined sealing food in an air-tight container with heat sterilisation.

British Food: A History

Three quarters of the food was derived from plants.

Who Invented Pizza?

I also loved learning about the changes in diet and cooking habits from the time of ancient Greece throughout the Middle Ages and thinking about cuisines I don't normally think about, like what the Vikings ate and where in the world those foods persist. It was full of many interesting historical tidbits and trivia, but it was presented in a way that made sense, from ancient Egyptian cuisine to the modern world. He explains the importation of spices and non-native foods to Europe, and how they were costly and therefore exotic and destined only for the nobility.
