Dedicating a Grave

There they come, representing every branch of the service, and in proper garb; soldiers, sailors, sappers and miners, all typified.

Jefferson's Gravestone

It has been a constant inspiration and source of good ideas. Reverend George Taylor, a Methodist minister also gained contributions by providing donors with certificates of appreciation.

The Service of dedication of the monument erected above the graves of Thomas and Sarah Bush Lincoln, father and step

During this ceremony, a time capsule that was in the monument was opened and a list containing those who died in the war was updated to contain those who died in Afghanistan and Iraq.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument

The ceremony contained many participants, including a group of Civil War re-enactors as well as the Michigan National Guard, organizations descended from the Grand Army of the Republic, and representatives from the Detroit City Council.
