Geschmacksache: Lieben Sie Brahms?

I came to read this book, or, more specifically, this author, not because of an attraction to the genre or the topic at hand, but because of rumours about the author. .

Paule loves Roger but he's a playboy.

A German Requiem (Brahms)

Don't you love the French way of having affairs? The film is very true to the book, and the casting--especially of Anthony Perkins--is really spot on. The best part of the novel is the problem the main protagonist finds herself in: to accept the passing of the time and embrace maturity or to feel herself joyful in someone's company, disregarding "conventional rules" age, sex, faith, ideals, nationality, race etc. As for the book, I remember my mum had a copy when I was a teenager, but for some reason I never laid my hands on it.

Das musikalische Hauptmotiv des Filmes ist der von , dem dritten Satz Poco allegretto entlehnt. .

Heinrich Bedford

This is the first Sagan's book I've read and I really liked it. .
