JOHN PASCOE police-sergeant T 19. The pilferers are a band of urchins, who have been robbing an orchard. Small parties of stragglers followed the next day, flying to the south.

The Project Gutenberg eBook of Old Taverns of New York, by William Harrison Bayles

He was executed privately, by his own request, at the Tower, February 25, 1601.

American and Commercial Advertiser, [newspaper]. April 22th, 1865: a machine

In the interval before his appearance Wickliffe had promised the Parliament, at their request, to prove the legality of its refusal to pay tribute to the Pope. The people, however, singularly enough, did not pelt the impudent rogue, but actually collected money for him. Its mighty dome dominates the City and is the great landmark in every view of London.

London Clubs, Their History & Treasures by Ralph Nevill

TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS Reward will be paid for the apprehension of DAVID C.
