Welcome

With three receipts 65A-C loosely inserted. Humphry House called attention to this, adding the observation that a similar device was used by Gerard Manley Hopkins and raising the question whether Hopkins could have seen the Coleridge notebooks when they were in the possession of Ernest Hartley Coleridge. This is not just a story about Paul Trevelyan, but hundreds of young men like him who sprung from their childhood at public schools and were shaped by education and men of rigorous ideals only to be trampled into the trenches as bricks of flesh against mortar shells — a disgusting and shameful waste of life which shows how the intricacies of life which becomes infused with many other lives around become insignificant by war.

677. Robert Southey to Charles Danvers, 17 May [1802]

I have not cared what the world thought about me, and as a result I am afraid what I thought has often not been very kind.

677. Robert Southey to Charles Danvers, 17 May [1802]

Among the frequently discussed topics are courtship, education, child rearing, marriage, and religion.
