Protocol to the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms / Rep. of Turkey Ministry of Foreign Affairs

The State Parties undertake to adopt measures that will make the right to work fully effective, especially with regard to the achievement of full employment, vocational guidance, and the development of technical and vocational training projects, in particular those directed to the disabled.

Protocol No. 8 to the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms

The States Parties to this Protocol recognize the benefits to be derived from the encouragement and development of international cooperation and relations in the fields of science, arts and culture, and accordingly agree to foster greater international cooperation in these fields. In this respect the practice of the Commission has not been changed, since it has always had the possibility of examining a case in the absence of the Commission member elected in respect of the High Contracting Party against which the petition has been lodged.
