This slip of the tongue, led to a tense moment of silence between them until Kakei calmed things down and invited Misono to their club. Shirasaki got nervous and attempted to shuffle the pictures, but a picture of Kakei landed in her sister's hands, causing her to blush which told Sayori who it was she liked.

Said day, happened to be Kakei's birthday and Shirasaki found out from Takamine and with the other club members arranged a birthday party for Kakei. When Shirasaki stepped out, Sayori spoke with Kakei stating she knew he wasn't really her sister's boyfriend and that she wanted to meet him in order to thank him for taking care of her sister. Sayori was sick and had to stay in the hospital which made her unable to attend school for about a year.

When Kakei didn't answer and looked away, this confirmed her fear that he really did become a shepherd which greatly shocked and hurt Tsugumi. The next day, when everyone was making the sound of the animal on the pillows Shirasaki made for them, they all pressured Tamamo to make the sound and it was Shirasaki's gaze that made her reluctantly do it.

Upgraded Madan: In the manga, Tsukuyo is later revealed to be capable of using Madan. When Misono talked about how important the item was, Shirasaki stated the tuning fork was well made and she expected it from the song princess which hurt Misono who thought they return it because of her reputation.

Tsugumi Shirasaki/Relationship

In episode 8, while worrying about Kana, he asks her a question about a book that predicts the future which indirectly responds to shepherds and if she'd read it. She even managed to detect Nomura in the bathhouse with Satori despite Nomura being kept completely silent by Satori to prevent detection.
