Repeat Row 2 until piece measures about two inches long. Teaching crochet probably won't replace your salary, and it won't be for everyone, but if you want to earn a little something extra without the huge commitment of running your own business, it is a great option to explore! It is always a good idea to make a brief outline of things you want to cover in class each day. Who owns the images I upload? You keep track of your expenses and income for when tax season rolls around.
