Government Contract Management Symposium

He grew up in the Seattle area where his father, Frank, was a high school teacher and coach. Come join us to learn how to better see waste so that you are more equipped to remove them at their roots. Her expertise is in learning and development, meeting facilitation, vision and strategy development, executive development, customer experience, employee experience, culture building, branding, operational excellence, emotional intelligence, change leadership and brand alignment.

Sessions

In this fun and helpful session we will explore the three most common barriers to inviting and obtaining honest feedback and what you can do about them. Vann spent 24 years in the Active Army with multiple combat deployments.

Reforming for results: Can public finance management reform improve government performance?

Janina is a Black Belt in Lean Six Sigma and is Prosci certified. Presenters will share how Health Department staff quickly adapted to a new organizational structure and more nimble decision-making process incident command ; how they applied LEAN tools to improve case investigation and contact tracing processes; and how a pre-COVID investment in building a quality culture paid multiple dividends during the extended outbreak investigation. We use Zoom and Microsoft Teams to stay in touch with colleagues, work on process improvement efforts and provide service to customers.

Sessions
