GROW IN CHRIST JESUS: BE UP AND AWAKE TO WHAT GOD IS DOING!

And Jesus felt their presence. Think about it: we are all created equally by God, right? However, thereafter, it started making sense, and flabbergasted in hysterics really that it is prayer! We should be interested in what God requires of us, learning what he wants us to learn, doing what he wants us to do, and thus living up to our responsibility to serve the One who has given us life.

16th Sunday

The second death will not be able to touch those who have awakened out of their deep sleep. If the parents take the lead in this by reading the Bible to the children, studying with them, taking them along to meetings and out in Kingdom service, then the children delight to follow.

Psalm 44:23 Wake up, O Lord! Why are You sleeping? Arise! Do not reject us forever.

A father walked out through the fields with his little bright-eyed boy, and laid down to rest in an inviting shade.

Awake, Awake

These were ready to enter in when the bridegroom returned.

Psalm 44:23 Wake up, O Lord! Why are You sleeping? Arise! Do not reject us forever.

When we dedicate our lives to Jehovah God we are making a vow to serve him for life; so dedication brings responsibility just as knowledge does. The mystery of evil is revealed only if the evil that sin contains can be revealed and this is so often masked by deceptive attempts to present evil intentions and actions in a positive light.

How to awaken your spirit to God

. On their return one of them reports that he had overtaken a company of Christians in a storm and destroyed them by sinking their vessel. How do we silence our own wills? Awake: as in, be alert and aware to what is happening in the world and inside of us.
