This gave the Gondoliers overture the familiar fast-slow-fast pattern of most of the rest of the overtures, and this version has competed for popularity with Sullivan's original version. The production utilised Doyle's signature conceit of the actors playing their own orchestra instruments.

Gilbert and Sullivan

He began building a reputation as England's most promising young composer, composing a symphony, a concerto, and several overtures, among them the , in 1870. After the copyrights on the operas expired, numerous companies around the world released popular audio and video recordings of the operas. But both poets are in love with Patience, the village milkmaid, who detests one of them and feels that it is her duty to avoid the other despite her love for him.

On Stage

The show played for 10 previews and 35 performances. Thespis is now lost, but there is no doubt that Sullivan wrote its overture.
