A. V. Dicey: Law of the Constitution

The Troubles of the 1980s and 90s Though the patriation of 1982 was a proud moment for Canada, and the Charter an important development for Canadian human rights, the overall structure of the Canadian government has long been controversial, which has made the topic of constitutional reform a popular topic of political debate in Canada. In practice, Parliament has added two additional stages to the process, namely, a second reading and a third reading. .
