He insisted that the Demon King gave away his life to bring about peace, but not many people believed him, even though Kanon was the Hero. Despite having a high level of respect towards Jerga, Kanon was openly opposed to Jerga's desire to pass his hatred on to students of the Hero Academy. Kanon was even able to separate six of his seven sources and fuse them with the Seven Elder Demon Emperors.

After being killed by Jerga's allies, Kanon decided to work alongside demons instead, who were more willing to forgive and forget. It is a legendary sword forged with the intention of slaying the Demon King, Anos Voldigoad. During the Great War, he met and battled Anos several times, leading the two of them to gain mutual respect for each other.
