Metternich: The visionary reconstructor of Europe and champion of conservatism

Both were engaged in the Black Sea and East Mediterranean trade, and Metternich pushed the Ottoman sultan to grant preferential terms to Austrian merchants in the trade in cotton and silk. After a brief exile in London, Brighton, and Brussels that lasted until 1851, he returned to the Viennese court, this time to offer only advice to Ferdinand's successor,. Metternich was a diplomat, not a strategist.

Clemens von Metternich: The man who outwitted Napoleon?

He had arranged in advance for newspapers to cover the first peacetime congress of its kind. The Austrian Empire was a conglomeration of 11 nationalities which had been forced under the rule of the Habsburg family by military conquests in the 17th century. In fact, since the end of the war between Kosovo and Serbia, there is no clear and controlled border between the two countries.
