Just because it is possible to ask too much of the text and its context is no reason to avoid drawing reasonable inferences from first century writings and practice where they can be drawn. Please excuse my melt down.

Alabama church proposes instrumental music, area preacher urges rejection

They may make you feel emotional, but that is not the same as spiritual. What is the point of such argument? Sophocles, in recognition of these same considerations, did not cite such authors as Josephus, Plutarch, and Lucian, who, though living within the time frame of his lexicon, wrote using classical Greek rather than koine Greek. We do not know the reason why the church did not use instruments.
