The Battle of the Somme (film)

It was an edited version of a real document outlining British plans in the event of conscription. At their Sheares Street headquarters, some of the Volunteers engaged in a standoff with British forces. In the corner of a foreign field.

Why Was the Battle of the Somme So Deadly?

Despite considerable debate among German , continued the policy of unyielding defence in 1916.

Second Battle of the Somme

The work is partly inspired by tales of sightings during and after the First World War by people who believed they had seen a dead loved one.

Why Was the Battle of the Somme So Deadly?

When MacNeill learned from Volunteer that the arms shipment had been lost, he reverted to his original position. But it was also a time when the avant-garde experiments that had preceded the war would, like the technological wonders of the airplane and the atom, inexorably establish a new dispensation, which we call modernism.
